

A gallery wall with a deep blue background. Several framed artworks are displayed: a small portrait of a woman in the upper left, a large landscape painting in the upper center, a large painting of a horse and rider in the upper right, a landscape painting in the lower center, and a small square frame in the lower right. A chandelier with a blue candle is mounted on the wall. A large, ornate, oval-shaped mirror is in the foreground, reflecting a brightly lit interior scene. The text 'PETERSBURGER ART' is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif font across the top half of the image.
